We Say...

Set within approximately 8 acres of land, this versatile rural property offers a rare combination of a three-bedroom detached house, a three-bedroom cottage and a one-bedroom cottage, complemented by a range of outbuildings, a detached garage and a stable block.

The main house enjoys countryside views and has a lawn to the front, together with a patio area providing a pleasant space to enjoy the surrounding rural setting. Inside, the ground floor includes a downstairs W.C., utility room leading from the kitchen and dining/reception rooms, while upstairs there are three bedrooms and the family bathroom.

Adding to the flexibility of the property, both cottages have their own private parking and independent heating and are being sold with tenants in situ, providing an established rental arrangement for the new owner. The additional accommodation also offers potential for a variety of uses, including multigenerational living, family and guests, subject to any necessary consents and notices.

The property also benefits from a detached garage, which provides useful garaging and has previously offered overflow accommodation for the family from the main house. Alternatively, the space could lend itself well to use as a workshop or for a variety of hobbies and practical requirements.

The grounds extend to approximately 8 acres and offer a mixture of open land and woodland, including around one acre of ancient bluebell woodland. A pond, garage, outbuildings and stable block further complement the outside space, with plenty of scope for those looking for room for animals, hobbies or simply the freedom that comes with having land around you.

Located approximately 15 minutes from Carmarthen, the property enjoys a peaceful countryside setting while remaining within easy reach of the town and its amenities.
