Rare to the market, located in St Albans Crescent is a premier residential road within the heart of Woodford Green, is this one bedroom period raised ground floor maisonette which has many period features and offers excellent size accommodation throughout. This unique property is a one off and the current owner has maintained the property very well as its in very good condition throughout.

The property is on a lovely tree-lined road with many eye catching Victorian and Edwardian. This property benefits from having an attractive frontage with period features such as cornicing and coving, stripped floorboard and feature fireplace. The property offers one bedroom, a beautiful good-sized sitting room, bathroom and fitted kitchen diner. The peaceful sole use garden has direct access from the flat and has a patio area leading to lawn.

St Albans has easy access to local shopping facilities (with Waitrose just a mile away) and various other amenities including restaurants on Woodford High Road, The Broadway and George Lane. Woodford and South Woodford station, on the Central Line, is a short walk away, four bus routes even closer, and there are road links to the A406 (North Circular), M11 and M25. By contrast, Epping Forest is also nearby and, with the Green, offers plenty of green space for long walks.
