Dale Close, situated in the popular area of Treloggan is a favoured area with younger couples and buy-to let investors due to its proximity to supermarkets, primary schools, pub, Prow Park business village and recreational facilities. The town centre and town beaches are located just over a mile away from the property.

From the front the property has a lawned frontage directly in front of the parking with a central path leading to the properties front door.

The property has a small entrance vestibule which provides access to the downstairs WC and the lounge. The lounge has a staircase ascending to the first floor and provides access to the kitchen/diner. The kitchen has a range of floor and wall mounted shaker style kitchen units under a rolled edge beech effect laminate worktop with space for washing machine and an under counter fridge.

This provides access to the rear garden where you find a level lawn to a rear decked area which enjoys the majority of the day and evening sun.

To the first floor are 2 bedrooms. The main room is to the rear with some views down to the River Gannel, the second room at the front of the property benefitting from a large integral wardrobe. The bathroom is presented in a clean and tidy condition with a low level WC, pedestal basin and a full length side panel bath with shower over.
