Dingle Road, Abergavenny

£495,000

- ♥ Detached Three Bedroom House
- ♥ 19' Living Room
- ♥ South Facing Garden With Spectacular Views
- ♥ No Onward Chain

About this property

A three double bedroom detached home occupying a highly regarded residential position on Dingle Road, and enjoying exceptional far-reaching views across Abergavenny towards the Blorenge Mountain. The property offers spacious and versatile accommodation extending to some 1,671 sq ft and is configured as an “upside down” house, designed to maximise the spectacular outlook from the main living areas. The raised ground floor comprises an entrance porch and welcoming hallway, which leads to the generous living room with patio doors to a veranda, positioned to take full advantage of the elevated views. In addition there is a separate dining room, fitted kitchen, cloakroom and direct access to the integral 19' garage. The lower ground floor provides three double bedrooms two of which have direct access out to the garden. Originally configured as four bedrooms, the central two have been knocked through to create an impressive principal bedroom measuring over 19' in length. The bedrooms are complemented by a modern wet room, separate shower room, WC and useful store room. Externally, the property is approached via a driveway providing parking for two vehicles and is complemented by an attractive front garden. To the rear is a south-facing garden enjoying an excellent degree of privacy together with stunning panoramic views across the town. Dingle Road remains one of Abergavenny's most sought-after residential areas, conveniently positioned for the town centre, local amenities and excellent transport links, whilst also providing immediate access to the surrounding countryside and walks. Offered with no onward chain.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Blorenge and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions
