Independent schooling is available at Heathfield Knoll School in Wolverley, providing education from nursery through to sixth form.

PROPERTY

This attractive Edwardian red-brick period terrace provides well-balanced accommodation arranged over two floors and extends to approximately 944 sq ft.

The property is entered through a welcoming entrance hall which leads into the reception room which enjoys plenty of natural light and retains the comfortable feel expected of a traditional home. Beyond lies a separate dining room, with double doors leading to the rear garden, creating an excellent space for both everyday family living and entertaining. There is a useful storage cupboard off the dining room.

To the rear is a well-appointed fitted kitchen offering a range of base and wall units together with useful worktop space and outlook over the rear garden.

Throughout, the house combines period charm with practical modern living, creating a home ready to enjoy whilst still offering scope for personalisation.

The first floor provides three bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom, together with a family bathroom.

The accommodation is ideally suited to first-time buyers, growing families or investors seeking a property in a popular and well-established residential area.

OUTSIDE

To the rear, the property benefits from a generously sized enclosed garden which provides an excellent outdoor space for families, entertaining and gardening enthusiasts alike.

A paved seating terrace adjoins the rear of the property and leads onto a lawned garden bordered by fencing, creating a safe and private environment for children and pets.

The garden enjoys a pleasant degree of privacy and offers ample space for outdoor dining and relaxation during the warmer months.
