A very rare opportunity to purchase a quaint stone cottage sitting alongside the river in Prendergast, Lower Solva. Built in the early 1800's, this property is bursting with character and is being sold with the huge appeal of no onward chain, making it a fantastic prospect for anyone looking for a bolt hole, investment or a character home.

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance door leading into the an open plan living area with two separate areas for both lounge and dining, a kitchen/breakfast room with door to the garden and a WC on the ground floor. On the first floor is a landing leading through to three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property is served by gas central heating and displays bundles of character features, including exposed beams, stone walls and both a woodburning stove and an open fireplace in the living/dining area.

Externally, there is a driveway providing off road parking for two cars, with steps leading down to the front of the property. There are both front and rear gardens that are laid to lawn, with a stone outbuilding to the front. At the rear is a pretty garden room/conservatory overlooking the lawned garden, which has a pedestrian gate leading to the river at the end of the garden.

With the further appeal of no onward chain, this property must be viewed in order to appreciate its charm and uniqueness!

The sought-after village of Solva, in the heart of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, offers wonderful opportunities for boating enthusiasts and walkers, as well as restaurants, cafes, public houses, shops, galleries, doctors' surgery, and primary school. It is some 12 miles North West of the county town of Haverfordwest and 3 miles from St Davids, with its famous Cathedral and ruined Bishops Palace, and is within easy reach of some of Pembrokeshire's most popular sandy beaches, such as Newgale and Whitesands.

DIRECTIONS

From Haverfordwest, take the A487 towards St Davids, passing through Simpson Cross, Roch, Newgale, and Penycwm. On reaching Solva, cross the bridge, and turn right into Prendergast. Continue and you will find the property on the right-hand side. What3Words:///statue.torso.visit
