ACCOMMODATION

A spacious 2 bedroom terraced house

Reception hallway with cloakroom

Well appointed kitchen with ample storage

Range of fitted units and breakfast bar

Sitting room with doors to garden

Dining area/family space & door to garden

Two good sized double bedrooms

First floor shower room

Enclosed courtyard garden

Single garage & driveway parking to front

This surprisingly spacious two double bedroom home is tucked away in a cul de sac location and a few minutes walk of Long Crendon's picturesque High Street and local amenities as well as delightful walks direct from the doorstep. The property has potential to extend into the garage to create a further reception room/office if needed. There is driveway parking to the front and gravelled front garden area. Within the reception hallway there is a useful downstairs cloakroom and door opening into a generous kitchen with range of base and wall units, breakfast bar and three spacious storage pantry cupboards. The sitting room has an open fireplace with patio doors to the garden and stairs rising to the first floor. There is a further room to the rear which is ideal for a dining area or snug/office. On the first floor the two bedrooms are both good sized double rooms with the smaller room benefiting from a built in wardrobe. There is a shower room with white suite as well as access to the loft space. Externally the courtyard garden is set on two levels and has ample space for table chairs and space for entertaining and al fresco dining in the summer months. It has useful gated access to the rear and is situated on an elevated position.
