Some houses are ready to move straight into. Others are waiting for someone with vision. This one is definitely the latter... and what a reward it could be.

If you've been searching for a property where you can create your dream home rather than inherit somebody else's, this substantial four-bedroom semi-detached home on the ever-popular Maldon Road could be exactly what you've been waiting for.

Yes, it needs renovating. Yes, it needs some love. But behind the décor lies an incredible amount of space, character and potential that's becoming increasingly difficult to find. Roll up your sleeves, bring your Pinterest boards to life, and create a forever home that's truly yours.

The generous driveway provides parking for multiple vehicles, making family life and entertaining effortless, while the welcoming porch leads you into a home bursting with opportunity.

Now, let's talk about the garage... because this isn't just any garage. Measuring an impressive 27'2" x 17'3", it's one of the property's biggest talking points. Whether you're dreaming of the ultimate workshop, home gym, games room, business space, car enthusiast's paradise or even future conversion potential (subject to the necessary permissions), the possibilities are almost endless. It even comes complete with a useful utility area and ground floor WC.

Inside, you'll find a spacious lounge centred around a feature fireplace, perfect for cosy evenings once you've added your own finishing touches. The kitchen flows through to an exceptionally large conservatory, creating a fantastic space for family life, entertaining guests or simply enjoying uninterrupted views of the beautiful rear garden.

And what a garden it is.

Private, wonderfully established and not overlooked, this impressive outdoor space is packed with mature trees, flowering shrubs and colourful planting, creating your own peaceful escape from the outside world. There's even a covered garden shelter that's crying out for summer gatherings, outdoor dining and year-round BBQs. Sunshine? Great. Typical British weather? You're covered.

Upstairs, you'll find four generously sized bedrooms, offering flexibility for growing families, home working or guest accommodation. The principal bedroom enjoys a unique feature with sliding doors opening onto the roof above the porch, while the family bathroom is surprisingly spacious, complete with a double vanity sink, separate shower and bath.

Properties like this don't come along every day. They certainly don't come ready-made... but that's exactly the point.

With no onward chain, fantastic proportions, a truly outstanding garage and the chance to create something really special, this is more than just a renovation project. It's an opportunity to build a home that your family could enjoy for years to come.

Sometimes the best homes aren't the finished ones... they're the ones where you get to write the next chapter.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the size, potential and endless possibilities this unique family home has to offer.
