The Property

Introducing No.4 The Green, a charming semi-detached period cottage occupying a desirable edge-of-village position within the sought-after South Shropshire village of Culmington, conveniently situated approximately 5 miles from both Ludlow and Craven Arms.

Available with no upward chain, this attractive cottage combines a wealth of character features with well-proportioned accommodation, generous parking and a range of useful outbuildings, making it an appealing prospect for a variety of purchasers.

The accommodation spans two storeys and is arranged on the ground floor around an entrance porch, a welcoming sitting room, which offers a cosy and characterful living space centred around an impressive inglenook fireplace housing a wood-burning stove. This space perfectly reflects the period charm of the cottage, with exposed timbers adding to the overall ambience. Stairs rise from the sitting room to the first floor. To the rear of the property is the heart of the home, a spacious open-plan kitchen/diner, which provides excellent space for everyday living as well as entertaining. The kitchen is well laid out with ample worktop and storage space within solid wood units and also benefits from a useful storage cupboard housing the washing machine, keeping appliances neatly tucked away. A door from the kitchen leads out to the rear garden. Completing the ground floor is a bathroom, adding flexibility and practicality to the layout.

On the first floor, a landing gives access to two generous double bedrooms. The principal rear bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room and array of built-in wardrobes, while the front bedroom enjoys beautiful views across the neighbouring countryside.

Outside, No.4 The Green enjoys a sizeable plot. A large gravelled driveway provides ample off-road parking and leads to a detached, oak-framed double garage, fitted with power and lighting and ideal for vehicle storage, workshop use or hobbies. The rear garden is of a good size and is mainly laid to lawn, offering plenty of space for relaxation, recreation and gardening, along with a useful garden shed and well-defined fenced and hedged borders. Further enhancing the property is a detached, brick-built outhouse, currently used as a home office, but equally suitable for use as a studio, hobby room or excellent additional storage, subject to individual requirements.

Culmington is a popular and well-regarded village, offering a strong sense of community while remaining conveniently placed for access to the market towns of Ludlow and Craven Arms, both of which provide a wider range of shops, schools, services and transport links.

Overall, No.4 The Green represents a rare opportunity to acquire a village cottage offering character, generous parking, multiple outbuildings and no onward chain, all within a highly desirable rural setting in South Shropshire.

The Location

Culmington is a small village approximately 5 miles from Ludlow and Craven Arms. The village is surrounded by beautiful South Shropshire countryside and has its own village hall. There are a range of welcoming village pubs within a 4 mile radius, including The Apple Tree, The Swan and The Clive Arms.

The quintessential British town of Ludlow is a throwback to the days gone by. You can't help but fall in love with the friendly welcoming townsfolk and the laid back lifestyle which feels a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of the big city. That's not to say that Ludlow is a quiet little backwater, far from it. Hosting the famous Ludlow Food and Drink Festival, Ludlow Spring Festival, May Fair and Ludlow Fringe, so there are events to keep you entertained all year round. There are also countless antique and local produce markets and book, craft and garden fairs. For sport lovers days out at Ludlow Racecourse, Golf Course, Rugby, Cricket, Tennis, Bowling or Football Clubs could await. Then there's the spectacular architecture and countryside that you'll never grow tired of admiring. Ludlow has to be one of the most perfect places to reside in Britain. The county town of Shrewsbury is approximately 28 miles north and the Cathedral City of Hereford is 24 miles south. Both are easily accessible by the mainline rail that runs a frequent service to Manchester, Holyhead and Cardiff from Ludlow station.
