LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION!!!

Constructed in 1967 this impressive and generously proportioned detached bungalow enjoys breath-taking rural views across open countryside and occupies a superb position within a substantial private plot.

The accommodation is both versatile and well-presented, offering a light and airy feel throughout. The ground floor comprises three to four bedrooms, complemented by two bathrooms, while the first floor provides three useful attic rooms.

The property is approached via a gravel driveway, offering ample off-road parking, leading to double front doors that open into a spacious entrance hallway with useful storage. From here, double doors provide access to both the breakfast kitchen and the dual-aspect sitting room. A striking double-sided log burner creates a focal point between the sitting and dining rooms.

The breakfast kitchen is well-appointed with an extensive range of contemporary wall and base units, alongside a charming feature fireplace with inset log burner. A generous utility room is located off the kitchen, offering additional storage and practicality.

The ground floor bedrooms are all well-proportioned and arranged around the family bathroom. To the rear of the property, a large conservatory spans the width of the bungalow, perfectly positioned to enjoy the stunning garden views. Further ground floor accommodation includes a substantial garage and a versatile playroom or guest bedroom, complete with an additional shower room.
