A little more information

Montrose Terrace is located a short distance from the centre of the village and well placed for access to the local shops and other amenities and many of the popular walks within the area. Being close to Glenashdale burn, the seafront and the beautiful sandy beach, it is approximately half a mile from the local primary school. The Arran High School with UHI hub and primary with early years classes is in Lamlash which pupils travel to daily.

Whiting Bay is an attractive, friendly and vibrant community with a large village hall, local pub, restaurants, excellent choice of shops and an 18 hole golf course as well as a bowling green.

The Isle of Arran is a place where you can find a little bit of everything you could ever want from a Scottish island; an ever-changing coastline, dramatic mountain peaks, sheltered beaches, verdant forests, great cultural festivals and a wealth of tasty local produce.
