

36 Summerhouse Way

Abbots Langley, WD5 0DY

Asking Price £485,000

Set in the sought-after village of Abbots Langley, this charming semi-detached home on Summerhouse Way offers the perfect balance of comfort, space, and convenience.

Inside, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, each offering a cosy and restful retreat. The inviting lounge-diner is perfect for family gatherings or hosting friends, while the practical utility area adds to the home's everyday convenience. A thoughtful layout ensures an abundance of natural light, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere throughout.

The real highlight is the impressive rear garden, which enjoys open views across beautiful fields — a peaceful setting for outdoor dining, children's play, or simply relaxing in the sunshine.

Completing the picture is a detached garage, providing excellent storage or potential for a workshop. With local shops, schools, and transport links close at hand, this location is perfect for commuters and families alike.

In summary, this three-bedroom semi-detached house combines generous interiors, a stunning garden, and a fantastic location — a wonderful opportunity to settle into a peaceful yet well-connected area
