Recently renovated, extended and thoughtfully reconfigured, this semi-detached bungalow now offers four-bedroom accommodation arranged over two floors: two well-proportioned bedrooms on the ground floor and two further bedrooms within the loft conversion. The layout lends itself equally well to growing families and to those working from home.

At the heart of the house, a rear extension has created a superb open-plan kitchen and living space finished to a high specification. The contemporary kitchen and newly appointed bathrooms match that standard throughout, while bi-fold doors open directly onto a freshly laid lawn — filling the room with natural light and making the most of the indoor-outdoor connection.

To the rear of the garden sits a versatile outbuilding, ideal as a home office, gym or additional entertaining space, with off-street parking provided to the front.

Positioned in Ruislip, the property is a short walk from well-regarded local schools and excellent Underground links, making it an outstanding choice for families and commuters alike.
