

Waveney Road, Ipswich,
£200,000

Set on the western side of Ipswich with easy links to the A14, this attractive three-bedroom terraced home is well suited to family living. It comes to the market with a garage positioned in a rear block, parking directly in front of it, and potential to add off-street parking at the front of the house. Additional features include double glazing throughout and a private garden to the rear. Viewing inside is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, which includes an entrance hallway, a generous living room, and a kitchen with space for dining on the ground floor. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the loft has been adapted to provide a useful extra area.

As the county town of Suffolk, Ipswich blends its rich past with more contemporary surroundings, particularly around its lively waterfront and central areas. You'll find historic streets and period buildings alongside modern developments, including the revitalised docks, a range of eateries, arts venues, and the university campus by the water. The town plays a key role in the local economy, with strong links to commerce, education, and culture, and benefits from good transport connections—London can be reached by train in around 75 minutes, and the Port of Felixstowe is nearby. Residents have access to a wide selection of amenities, including schools, retail options, medical and dental services, a hospital, theatres, and green spaces such as Orwell Country Park and Christchurch Park, as well as various leisure facilities.
