Oakridge Lynch, Stroud, Gloucestershire, GL6 7NY

Asking Price £500,000

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this delightful two-bedroom detached Cotswold stone cottage sits within the heart of the village, set back behind a lawned garden with a driveway providing parking for several vehicles which leads to a detached garage. Internally, the cottage features a spacious 16'4 x 16'0 kitchen–dining room positioned alongside a charming sitting room enhanced by an exposed stone walling, ceiling beams, stone mullion window and a welcoming wood-burning stove. The property benefits from two separate staircases, one rising from the sitting room and the other from the kitchen dining room adding to its unique layout and period appeal. A useful utility room adjoins the kitchen and provides access to a small bathroom, as well as a rear door opening into a covered store/wood store. Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, one of which enjoys its own private staircase leading down to the sitting room, along with a shower room. The cottage offers excellent scope for updating and improvement and already possesses the quintessential charm and aesthetic one would expect from a traditional home in the Cotswolds.

Amenities

Oakridge Lynch is a small Cotswold village east of Stroud, known for its stone cottages, wooded valleys, and links to the Arts & Crafts movement. Part of the Bisley-with-Lypiatt parish, it sits within the Cotswolds AONB and includes landmarks such as Oakridge Village Hall which offers a hive of activity with monthly events to include: A wine club - lunch club - film night - garden club - history group - amateur dramatics and more. Other amenities in the village include: A village shop and post office, St Bartholomew's Church, the Butcher's Arms pub, and the long-established village school. Historically shaped by weaving and the wider Stroud cloth industry, the village retains a strong community identity, scenic walking routes, and a peaceful rural character that blends long-term residents with newcomers drawn to its landscape and heritage. There is also a playing field with children's park equipment, active cricket club, adult fitness trail and allotments, plenty to do for all the family.

Directions

If travelling in from the Bisley direction proceed down into the village. At the crossroads continue straight across and proceed along the road where you will see a war memorial on your left, continue past that turning and take the next turning on the left where Acorn Cottage will be found along on the left behind the stone wall.
