Location

The historic market town of Ashby de la Zouch has links back to Roman times. Historically the town was dominated by the 12th century manor house, eventually becoming a 15th century castle belonging to the Hastings family. Today this is a thriving community on the north side of the A42 dual carriageway, with excellent road links south-west via the M42 to Birmingham and Birmingham International Airport, or north-east to the M1 motorway corridor with East Midland conurbations beyond and Nottingham East Midland Airport at Castle Donington.

The town boasts high street brand shops, many independent traders, boutiques and coffee shops. Located adjacent to primary access links further amenities include supermarkets including M & S Simply Food. Popular schooling includes five primary schools, secondaries include Ivanhoe School and, Ashby School with associated sixth form.

Accommodation Details – Ground Floor

From the front elevation a traditional doorway leads directly into the entrance porch, a secondary door to the right hand side further opens into a large open plan reception/dining room. Overlooking the rear gardens is a fitted kitchen that offers a range of storage in the form of floor and wall mounted units as well as space for free standing appliances.

First Floor

A single flight staircase rises from the living area to the first floor landing, doors lead off allowing access into all three bedrooms and the family bathroom. Bedrooms one and two are both good sized double bedrooms whereas bedroom three works as a versatile third room that works well as a dressing room, nursery or study.

Outside

Externally the property benefits from off road parking to the side elevation in the form of a concrete driveway. Gated access to the side elevation leads round into the West facing garden benefitting from a block paved patio area ideal for entertaining outdoors.

Tenure & Possession

The property is freehold with vacant possession being given on completion.
