Rarely available a well presented three bedroom house located in the much sought after Lambardes neighbourhood.
Positioned on the outskirts of Lambardes with open woodlands and fields adjacent.
This unique home built by the renowned modern architect Eric Lyons (Span Ltd).
The current owners have made many improvements and your internal viewing is recommended.

On arrival you will notice the well nurtured and established surrounding landscaping. Step into the spacious entrance porch, there is a large double cupboard currently used as a utility area with housing for washing machine and tumble dryer, also in the entrance porch there is a downstairs cloakroom. The living room features full length double glazed windows to the front, so plenty of natural light, there is a dining room with double glazed bi folding doors opening up to the fabulous south west facing rear garden, bringing the outside in with more natural light. The modern fitted kitchen boasts Italian granite worktops and integrated appliances including double oven and hob plus dishwasher, fridge/freezer and wine cooler plus a water softener.
Upstairs there are three bedrooms all with plenty of cupboard space, the third bedroom is lucky enough to a have loft space which is not usual in these particular style homes. There is also a bathroom upstairs.
Outside the south west facing rear courtyard garden is both peaceful and tranquil with wonderful rustic outside paving slabs, raised pond with water feature, mature well established shrubs and planting with a fabulous jasmine with its rich fragrance, this is truly a garden that looks after itself. To the rear of the garden this property boasts a real feature with a summerhouse with power and light and heater, and on top of this is the outside lighting with spaces in the garden for sun bathing and for shade. The sellers have also created a storage/bin store There is a gate leading to the garage which is located in a block of garages to the rear. Also with the location of this particular property there is plenty of parking at the front.

New Ash Green benefits from local facilities which include local shops, doctor and dental surgeries, health clinic, primary school and nurseries, access to grammar and secondary schools, public library. Bus services to main line railway station at Longfield offering services to London as well as a commuter coach service to London.
