Offers Over £600,000
EPC RATING: D

Situated towards the bottom of this desirable cul de sac location in Bearsted, this charming four-bedroom detached chalet bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Spanning an impressive 2,003 square feet, this property, built in the late 1960s, boasts a spacious layout ideal for family living.

Upon entering, you are greeted by two inviting reception rooms, providing ample space for relaxation and entertaining. The well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room is perfect for casual dining, while the dining room offers direct access to the expansive rear garden, making it an excellent spot for summer gatherings and outdoor enjoyment.

This chalet bungalow features four generously sized bedrooms, two upstairs and two downstairs, ensuring plenty of room for family or guests. The single bathroom is conveniently located to serve the household's needs. Outside, the large rear garden is a true highlight, offering a tranquil retreat with plenty of space for children to play or for gardening enthusiasts to indulge their passion. With the added benefit of two sheds with potential to update to a home office or gym. The generous plot around 1/5 acre also presents exciting potential to extend the bungalow considerably, subject to the necessary planning permissions being obtained. There may additionally be scope, again subject to planning permission, to construct an annex or further outbuildings.

For those with multiple vehicles, the property includes parking for several cars, along with a double garage with electric that also provides additional parking, providing both convenience and security.
