6 Glenhow Lune Street

Saltburn-By-The-Sea, TS12 1JU

£499,000

Located in Saltburn-by-the-Sea, this delightful three-bedroom Victorian house on Lune Street is arranged over three floors and offers a good amount of living space while retaining a number of original period features.

The ground floor includes a reception room with space for both seating and dining, along with a kitchen that leads out to the rear garden. The layout works well for everyday living and makes good use of the space available.

Across the upper floors there are three bedrooms, all of comfortable proportions, along with two bathrooms which add practicality for family living or when hosting guests. The house still retains some Victorian character, while modern improvements have been made over time to keep the property functional and comfortable.

To the rear there is a garden providing outdoor space for sitting, gardening or general use. The property is within walking distance of the beach, town centre and local amenities in Saltburn-by-the-Sea, making it a convenient location within this well-known coastal town.

This property is a wonderful opportunity for anyone seeking a home that combines historical charm with contemporary living in a picturesque seaside setting.

Early viewing is highly recommended.
