IF YOU LIVED HERE....

The real heart of the apartment is the wonderfully generous open-plan kitchen and reception room, a long, light-filled space that feels made for both everyday living and easy entertaining. The contemporary kitchen is finished with pale cabinetry, contrasting tiled splashbacks and a breakfast bar, while the reception area beyond gives you plenty of room to create distinct dining and lounging zones. Double doors open straight onto the balcony, drawing in natural light and adding an easy indoor-outdoor feel.

The two bedrooms are both comfortable doubles, with large windows and warm timber-effect flooring giving the rooms a calm, cohesive finish. One has its own ensuite shower room, while the main bathroom sits separately off the hallway with a bath and shower above, finished in understated grey tiling. Useful storage is tucked neatly into the hall, and there's even more outdoor space beyond your own balcony thanks to the communal gardens, giving you a rare combination of generous interiors and greenery in such a central Walthamstow setting.

WHAT ELSE?

- Walthamstow Central is moments away, putting both the Victoria line and London Overground within easy reach. Around the station you'll also find 17&Central, Forest Cinema and plenty of useful everyday shops and amenities.
- Walthamstow Village is close by, with Orford Road home to independent shops, restaurants and pubs including The Queen's Arms and The Nag's Head. Hoe Street adds Soho Theatre Walthamstow to the neighbourhood's growing cultural offering.
- For green space, Lloyd Park is nearby, home to the William Morris Gallery, landscaped gardens, sports facilities and plenty of open lawn. It's an easy place to spend a slow weekend afternoon without straying far from home.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I love living in Walthamstow – it's got such a great mix of things going on. Saturdays are my favourite, with the market in Lloyd Park full of fresh food, handmade bits, and plenty of friendly faces. The new Soho Theatre has brought amazing shows right to our doorstep, and if I fancy a pint, the Blackhorse Beer Mile breweries are perfect for a wander. When I need some fresh air, the Walthamstow Wetlands are just a short stroll away – all that greenery makes you completely forget you're in London. Plus, with brilliant transport links, it's so easy to hop on the Tube or Overground and be in Central London in no time at all".
