Situation

Quemerford is situated on the eastern outskirts of Calne, about a mile or so from the town centre. A local convenience store is within walking distance. Calne is an expanding North Wiltshire town which caters for most day to day requirements with a range of facilities including schooling for all ages. The neighbouring larger town of Chippenham provides more comprehensive facilities including mainline rail services (Paddington about 75 minutes). There is easy road access to the larger neighbouring centres of Swindon and Bath; and via the M4 motorway, Bristol, London and the West Country.
