DESCRIPTION / BACKGROUND

Box Tree Barn sits in the centre of the village with an attractive open aspect over the village green. The deceptively modest frontage belies the overall extent of the property which provides over 4,000 square feet of space and sits within almost a quarter of an acre of attractively landscaped grounds. The buildings date back to 1750, and the conversion was handled with a rare sensibility, combining an imaginative approach preserving the buildings innate character, whilst creating a stylish home with a superb standard of finish and with real integrity to the finished property. Local craftsmen and materials were involved in the conversion process and features high-quality kitchen cabinetry and sanitary ware are present throughout.

In all Box Tree Barn provides 4,337 square feet of accommodation, with a self-contained suite of rooms forming an independent one-bedroom annexe which can easily be incorporated into the main flow of the house. The annexe has an independent entrance, heating system and all services are separately metered, great for any buyers looking for a property suited to intergenerational living. A useful workshop/studio adjoins the house.

The accommodation has been designed around a sheltered central courtyard garden, with doors opening directly onto the garden from three sides. In brief, entrance hall with utility room, farmhouse kitchen with solid oak cabinetry, garden room, a beautifully proportioned central hallway with a carved oak return staircase up to the first floor. An elegant sitting room and from the old wheelhouse a stunning main reception room has been created, featuring a vaulted ceiling, exposed original stonework and large windows to two sides which flood the room with light. To the ground floor is a large double bedroom with en-suite bathroom. To the first floor is a galleried landing with fitted storage, there are three first floor bedrooms and the house bathroom. The annexe is formed from the single storey range which fronts onto the village street and offers lateral living, living room, dining kitchen, double bedroom and shower room.

In all the house sits in just under a quarter of an acre of grounds, including a sheltered courtyard garden, outside dining area set under a pergola and a lawned garden. There is ample private parking and the benefit of two EV charging points.

LOCATION

The pretty, moorland village of Lockton enjoys a peaceful position located off the A169, between Pickering and Whitby. This friendly community benefits from a popular tearoom and gallery, and is within easy reach of two good local pubs, one in the neighbouring village of Levisham, and another just outside the village. Despite its rural feel, Lockton is located less than 6 miles from the market town of Pickering, Malton lies 15 miles south and the City of York is easily commutable.

GARDEN & GROUNDS

Box Tree Barn occupies a prominent position within the heart of the village and faces south looking along the Main Street and down the Village Green. A driveway leads down the eastern edge of the property, opening via electric double hardwood timber gates onto a graveled parking area, with EV charge point and space to park a number of vehicles. A further EV charging point has been fitted at the head of the driveway.

The rear garden is walled to all sides and bounded by mature trees and shrubs, creating a sheltered and private space with lawn and a broad stone flagged terrace, sheltered by an oak pergola onto which has doors opening out from the house onto it. To the far end of the garden stands a useful timber garden shed with log store. There is both power and water to the outside.

At the heart of the property stands a sheltered and extremely private courtyard garden. An espalier of apple trees lines the pathway from the high hand gate on the driveway leading to the front door. Attractively landscaped with lawn and a number of well-placed herbaceous shrubs and plantings creating a pretty and sociable space which benefit from doors opening out from three sides which creates a lovely flow of inside out indoor living, ideal for entertaining.

WORKSHOP/STUDIO

5.20 m (17'1") x 4.90 m (16'1")
