Bere Alston, Yelverton

Offered for sale with no onward chain, is this detached two/three bedroom home, including a loft conversion to create the second double bedroom and a separate office/bedroom three. The ground floor accommodation offers two reception rooms, plus a conservatory, kitchen/diner, double bedroom and shower room. There large rear gardens, front garden and driveway providing off road parking and a single garage.

The entrance hall boasts ample storage cupboards and leads to a sitting room with fireplace and views over the front gardens. The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of base units, breakfast bar, space for white goods and cooker, wall mounted mains gas fired boiler and further larder unit. The kitchen is double aspect with windows to side and rear. A ground floor shower room has been recently re-fitted with walk-in shower, vanity basin, heated towel rail and WC. A dining room has stairs rising to the first floor and a door into the conservatory overlooking the well established gardens via French doors. A delightful spot to enjoy the gardens.

On the first floor a small landing with storage cupboard then leads to a generous double bedroom and door into a separate office, which could be a third bedroom if required, with velux roof lights.

Outside, driveway providing off road parking and lawned front garden. Access is given to the single garage. To the rear is a large enclosed well established garden with mature shrubs and hedge boundaries. Useful store shed.
