

The Strand, Brighton Marina Village

Brighton

Guide Price £230,000

The Strand, Brighton Marine Village

Located in the desirable Brighton Marina, just east of Brighton city centre, a spacious ONE BEDROOM, GROUND FLOOR CORNER PLOT APARTMENT in a GATED DEVELOPMENT with a large OUTSIDE COURTYARD and ALLOCATED PARKING.

Situated in a gated development in the Marina's inner harbour, this well-presented apartment is perfect for those who want to combine the tranquillity of waterfront living with the vibrant, cosmopolitan energy of Brighton. The corner plot is one of only four in the development and features a spacious living room and diner area, with ample space for a dining table.

Down the hall sits a separate kitchen area, as well as a classic white suite bathroom, and additional built-in cupboards for added convenience. Completing the accommodation is a good-sized double bedroom with a unique arched window, flooding the room with light.

Outside, the property benefits from a rare and spacious courtyard style garden, offering a versatile outdoor space ideal for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the warmer months.

The Local Area

Regarded as one of the city's premier residential and leisure destinations, Brighton Marina offers an exceptional lifestyle with round-the-clock bus links straight to the city centre.

Officially opened by HM The Queen in 1978, Brighton Marina features a working harbour, yacht club, residential housing and a wide variety of restaurants, boutiques and amenities including a supermarket, bowling alley, multiplex cinema and David Lloyd Health Club.

Providing over 1300 berths, the marina also provides a boatyard and fuel berth along with other ancillary services. A short seafront drive takes you to the picturesque village of Rottingdean or to the hubbub of central Brighton. A pleasant walk along the boardwalk takes you to the popular Reading Rooms refectory, and on to the open water swimming centre, Sea Lanes, with swimming, sauna, and food and drinks.
