PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

There are an ever decreasing number of properties available in the market that offer the opportunity to take something and really make it your own, and fewer still that stem from the Victorian era, with a great location and even the ability to further extend (subject to local authority planning, of course!).

Well, fear not, because just such an opportunity, and a great one in our view, is available in the form of this three bedroom semi detached cottage, located in a small no through road location, conveniently located between Kingswood and Reigate.

With a classic layout of two reception rooms, central rear kitchen and large utility on the side, there are endless possibilities available that would include; joining rooms together and extending to the rear, with maybe a porch at the front. Whilst upstairs are currently three bedrooms and a bathroom, all again with the option of creating further/bigger bedrooms and possibly another bathroom, on a larger footprint. The property current benefits from gas fired heating by radiators and double glazing, whilst to the outside it has a private drive and forecourt area, with a lovely long garden waiting for someone to love it at the rear.

Nestled on the edge of the beautiful Surrey Hills, Lower Kingswood village offers the perfect balance of countryside living and everyday convenience. Surrounded by open green spaces, woodland walks and picturesque scenery, it provides an ideal setting for families, professionals and those looking to enjoy a quieter pace of life. The village benefits from a selection of local amenities including a Post Office/convenience store, traditional pubs, social clubs and a well-regarded primary school, with further shopping, restaurants and leisure facilities available in nearby Banstead, Tadworth, Reigate and Epsom. The wider area is renowned for its abundance

For commuters, Lower Kingswood provides easy access to the M25 (Junction 8), A217 and M23, providing excellent road links to London, Gatwick Airport and the South Coast. Mainline railway stations can be found at Kingswood, Reigate, Tadworth or Tattenham Corner offering regular services into London, making it a popular choice for those seeking a rural lifestyle without compromising on connectivity.
