THE PROPERTY

The property is entered via a welcoming entrance hall with space for furniture and a coat cupboard, leading to an inner hall with stairs rising to the first floor. The sitting room features a log burner and French doors opening onto the garden. There is also a cosy snug, also with a log burner, built-in cabinets and shelving.

The kitchen/dining room is fitted with an AGA, granite worktops and a Belfast sink, with an integrated dishwasher and space for a large fridge/freezer. A utility room, fitted to the same standard, leads to a cloakroom, both benefiting from direct access to the garden.

The former annexe has its own private entrance and hallway if required. It comprises a living room, conservatory from which the views can be admired, study (formerly the kitchen), bedroom and bathroom. This accommodation works equally well as part of the main house or separately if required.

On the first floor of the main house, the principal bedroom has built in wardrobes and enjoys stunning views across the garden and surrounding countryside. Bedroom two is a double, while bedroom three is also a comfortable double with built in wardrobe and cupboards. There is also the main family bathroom.

Outside, to the front, a gravel driveway provides parking and turning space for several vehicles. The barn is divided into two large rooms with double doors opening onto the driveway, and there is also a garage with a storage room above. A brick built store provides additional storage.

To the rear, a paved terrace overlooks the garden, pond and countryside beyond, with further seating areas positioned to enjoy the sun from dawn until dusk. The lawn is bordered and interspersed with established trees, and to the side of the property there is a vegetable garden and greenhouse.

EPC Exempt. Council Tax Band F.

LOCATION

Ravensthorpe village lies midway between the towns of Northampton and Rugby. Accessed via the A428, the village is just 6 miles east of M1 J18 and has its own shop/post office, public house, playing field, pocket park and woodland. The civil parish includes the neighbouring hamlet of Coton, which is home to Coton Manor Gardens, a 17th Century Northamptonshire stone manor with ten acres of beautiful gardens, plant nursery, café, bluebell woods and wildflower meadow. Ravensthorpe also has a reservoir which was constructed towards the end of the 19th Century and remains the major feature of the village's landscape. Education is provided at either Guilsborough or East Haddon primary schools, both of which then feed into Guilsborough secondary school just 2 miles away. In relation to public transport, a bus service operates to Northampton and Rugby via Long Buckby where the nearest mainline train station to London Euston and Birmingham New Street is located.
