Description

Robert Luff & Co are privileged to present this exciting piece of Shoreham's history - A Grade II listed Georgian Townhouse located moments from the town centre and approx. 1/3 mile from the mainline railway station. Dating from the 1820's, the property is believed to have been built by a prominent Shoreham shipwright and evidence of this is featured throughout the property, including the floorboards, which are thought to have originated from ships timbers. The substantial property has been lovingly re-instated and refurbished by the current owners and features versatile accommodation spanning three storeys, ground floor shower room, first floor luxury bathroom, 5/6 bedrooms, stylish kitchen, a roof terrace with amazing views, off street parking and gardens. Viewing is highly recommended - VENDOR SUITED.
