IF YOU LIVED HERE...

The reception room is the natural heart of the home, and it is a lovely one. At over 16ft long, it feels open and easy, with tall glazing drawing in plenty of daylight and giving the whole space a bright, relaxed feel. There is ample room to stretch out and unwind, while the dining area sits neatly to one side, framed by fitted shelving and cabinetry that make the space feel both useful and considered. It is the kind of room that suits everyday living very well, whether you are working from home, eating with friends or simply putting your feet up at the end of the day.

Just off the reception, the separate kitchen is practical and light-filled, with generous worktop space, shaker-style units and a bold tiled splashback adding a bit of character. Across the hall, the bedroom is an inviting double with fitted wardrobes and a large window, while the bathroom is neatly finished with a full bath, overhead shower and useful vanity storage. Altogether, it is a flat that feels easy to settle into from the start, with a thoughtful layout and a calm, well cared for feel throughout.

WHAT ELSE?

Seven Sisters is moments away, making it easy to get across London when needed. Tottenham Marshes is only a short walk from your door when you want open space and a change of pace. Local amenities are close at hand, so day-to-day essentials are pleasingly straightforward. Residents have access to communal gardens as well as parking.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We've had four and a half happy years in this flat and will be sad to move on. We feel so lucky to have had such a quiet street, whilst being so near the high street and amazing transport links via the Victoria & Overground lines. There are so many great pubs, cafes, restaurants and things to do in Tottenham, we love The Palm and The High Cross, and there are new things popping up all the time - it's really exciting."
