Littleover, Derby, DE23 6FX

Offers over £825,000

PARK LANE HOUSE is an elegant period home which skilfully blends timeless refinement with modern living, offering over 3000 square feet of immaculate living accommodation located in an exclusive gated development hidden away in the centre of Littleover village.

This spacious five double bedroom period home is located in a delightful position off Park Lane in the heart of Littleover village. The spectacular over a third of an acre plot comprises beautifully mature south facing gardens which offers great privacy, as well as extremely easy and convenient access to local amenities.

Offering generously proportioned rooms with around 3000 square feet of living accommodation with a light-filled interior that has been thoughtfully designed for modern family living. The property benefits from recently-installed heritage style sash window double glazing throughout, and with generous insulation, this leads to an EPC rating of C, and low running costs for a period property of this scale.

The impressive ground floor layout includes a spacious entrance hallway, dining room, morning room, generous sitting room with log burner, impressive conservatory, expansive open plan dining kitchen, pantry, laundry cupboard, guest WC and boot room. The charming main landing leads to three generous double bedrooms with one of these bedrooms offering a contemporary en-suite shower room. The rear landing area gives access to a family four-piece bathroom and two further double bedrooms. Externally, the property also benefits from ample parking and a double detached garage with EV charging point.

Entering the property, the handsome solid wood panelled front door opens into a spacious hallway with parquet flooring and an intricately detailed staircase. The hallway provides access to all the major ground floor rooms with open plan access to a formal dining room which features a Derbyshire fossil limestone fireplace, twin sash windows and built-in cabinetry. The dining room leads onto a boot room and a ground floor guest WC.

There is a delightful morning room with period fireplace and delightful double aspect views over the rear garden and French doors into the conservatory. The sitting room is generously proportioned, enhanced by a coffered ceiling, a sash windows provides views of the garden and two sets of French doors open into the conservatory, whilst a striking fireplace with a stone hearth and Clearview log burner creates a warm focal point. The elegant period style conservatory is double glazed with a glass roof, underfloor heating, French doors and delightful views over the rear garden.

Lying at the heart of this spectacular home is an impressive and beautifully appointed dining kitchen with granite worktops, a large dining island housing an induction hob, integrated appliances include a full-height fridge and freezer, electric oven, combination oven/microwave, and dishwasher. There is plenty of space remaining for a large family sized dining table. A charming seating area sits beneath a glazed roof which absolutely fills the space with natural light and makes the perfect spot for a morning coffee. There is a built-in pantry and separate laundry cupboard with additional cabinetry and space for a washing machine.

Upstairs, a handsome staircase leads to a light filled landing with access to five double bedrooms and a beautifully appointed four-piece family bathroom. The primary bedroom offers particularly spacious dimensions and a period feature fireplace. Bedroom two benefits from its own contemporary en-suite shower room.

The grounds surrounding the property are particularly impressive and provide a key highlight. The rear garden is both beautifully landscaped and expertly maintained, offering a variety of distinct areas to enjoy. A series of ornamental ponds bring movement and interest, while the sunken seating area creates a natural entertaining space-private, sheltered, and ideal for summer evenings. The outdoor space is enclosed and secluded, bordered by mature trees and planting which create a natural screen from neighbouring properties.

The property offers a delightful kitchen garden that has been thoughtfully laid out for growing vegetables and has established fruit bushes and a mature vine area offering seasonal produce.

The property also benefits from a detached double garage with an EV charging point, and off-street parking for several vehicles. The exclusive development is accessed via a private driveway, serving only a small number of executive homes-offering a secure, peaceful environment rarely found so close to the amenities of Littleover.

The property occupies a convenient location just a short stroll from Littleover village centre, to include an excellent range of local shops and amenities. These include a supermarket, Post Office, petrol station, coffee shop and a further range of retail outlets. This location is also well positioned for employment opportunities at Rolls-Royce, Toyota, Derby University and The Royal Derby Hospital. There is also swift access to the A38 and A50 leading to the M1 motorway and the main motorway network. The property also falls within the catchment area for the noted Littleover Community School and just a short walking distance from St Peter's Junior school. Private education is also within walking distance at Derby High School and Derby Grammar School for boys.

Agents notes: There are shared costs for the maintenance of the gate and driveway, currently £80 per annum. All the trees on the plot have Tree Preservation Orders (TPO).

Tenure: Freehold (purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves as to the tenure via their legal representative).

Please note: It is common for property Titles to contain Covenants; a copy of the Land Registry Title is available to view on request. It is quite common for some properties to have a Ring doorbell and internal recording devices.
