Enjoying a peaceful and pleasant location with good access to not only Tunbridge Wells town centre but also High Brooms railway station and Grosvenor and Hilbert park, a beautifully presented four double bedroom detached family home arranged over three storeys and with the real advantages of both an en-suite and private balcony to the main bedroom, a further large bathroom to the upper floor and an extremely impressive lower ground floor area with a generous lounge space looking towards private gardens. There is a further dining area and an attractive contemporary styled kitchen with separate utility space. Externally, the property has a good sized single private driveway to the front sitting in front of a garage with double tandem parking and attractive private gardens to both front and rear, the latter the subject of significant landscaping and re-modelling to provide a real urban oasis. Properties of this size in this location - and with these attractive specifications - are always of great interest and to this end we would encourage interested parties to make an immediate appointment to view.

Access is via a partially glazed double glazed door with two inset opaque panels leading to:

Further steps leading to a lower garden area set principally to lawn with further high and deep surrounding hedges, seating areas, shrub and flower beds.

OUTSIDE FRONT:

The property enjoys a good sized private driveway with room for one vehicle leading to a garage door which has tandem style parking for two smaller vehicles. Tiled path running to the front door passed the partially glazed courtesy door to the garage. There are also steps leading down to the lower ground level which lead around to the rear gardens with a small patio area adjacent to the lower ground floor, further external storage space and an external tap. The front gardens are principally set to a steep lawn with areas of shrub plantings.

SITUATION:

The property is located on a cul-de-sac off of Sandhurst Road in Tunbridge Wells. To this end it offers good access to the town centre itself, nearby High Brooms railway station and the North Farm retail park. Beyond this - and at the very end of Redleaf Close - is a path leading to the recently refurbished Grosvenor and Hilbert park with its areas of ancient woodland, sports pitches, orchards and café. Tunbridge Wells itself has a wide range of social, retail and educational facilities including a number of sports and social clubs and two theatres, a good number of independent retailers, restaurants and bars principally between the Pantiles and Mount Pleasant and along Camden Road and with an excellent range of highly regarded schools at primary, secondary, independent and grammar levels, many of which are readily accessible from the property. The town has two main line railway stations offering fast and frequent services to London termini and the South Coast and good access to the A21 trunk road leading directly to the M25.
