THE PROPERTY

Approaching 3,000 sq ft of light-filled living space, this impressive family residence showcases exceptional period charm. The home is defined by its striking high ceilings and large original sash windows, complemented by elegant cornicing and a feature fireplace with a wood-burning stove. The ground floor is home to a welcoming entrance lobby and hallway, magnificent drawing room, dual aspect living room, dining room and stunning kitchen/breakfast room (with gas fired Aga), utility room, study and cloakroom/WC. An imposing staircase gives access to a part galleried landing and all 4 first floor bedrooms, including 2 en-suite shower rooms and a spacious family bathroom. The property benefits from a large 17' (5.18m) garage/workshop to the rear, plenty of parking and 2 private courtyard gardens, as well as being able to enjoy the surrounding communal parkland. If you are looking for a substantial character home that truly stands out, an early viewing is essential.

LOCATION

Penryn is a historic and exceptionally well connected town; the nearby railway station offers links to Falmouth, with a mainline connection to Truro and on to London Paddington. Primary schooling, Penryn College and the Falmouth University campus are all easily accessible. Residents enjoy an active local community boasting the Penryn Athletic Football Club, Penryn Cricket Club, and Penryn Rugby Club (the oldest rugby club in Cornwall). Everyday essentials are right on the doorstep, with major supermarkets including Asda and Lidl providing convenient shopping options just moments away. Keen walkers can enjoy scenic, easy-going trails around the nearby Argal Reservoir, which features a two-mile circular lakeside loop, and the peaceful College Reservoir, a local haven for birdwatching and wildlife. Both areas provide stunning waterside views and quiet woodland paths just a short distance from the town.
