GOLDWYNN QUAY

Riverside Living in Canary Wharf

Luxury build-to-rent apartments designed for modern city living, set along the river in the heart of Canary Wharf.

At Goldwynn Quay, every home is your own thoughtfully designed sanctuary - fully furnished, professionally managed, and part of a vibrant co-living community.

Step outside and you're moments from scenic riverside walks along the Thames, the peaceful South Dock Marina, and green spaces like Jubilee Park — perfect for morning runs, weekend picnics, or a relaxing stroll. Just a few minutes away, Canary Wharf's iconic shopping and dining district offers a bustling mix of restaurants, cafés, bars, and flagship stores.

Everyday essentials are easy to access, with supermarkets, cafés, and local amenities right on your doorstep. Meanwhile, the neighbourhood is filled with opportunities to connect, relax, or unwind - from rooftop terraces and co-working spaces to London's first residential pickleball court.

Getting around London is effortless. South Quay DLR is just a short walk away, Canary Wharf Underground station links to the Jubilee Line, and the Elizabeth Line provides direct access across the city, reaching Bank in under 15 minutes and Heathrow in around 40. Frequent bus services connect you to surrounding East London districts, putting the city at your fingertips.

Whether you're working from home, socialising with neighbours, or exploring the capital, Goldwynn Quay blends riverside tranquillity with modern convenience and unmatched connectivity.

This is Canary Wharf living, elevated.

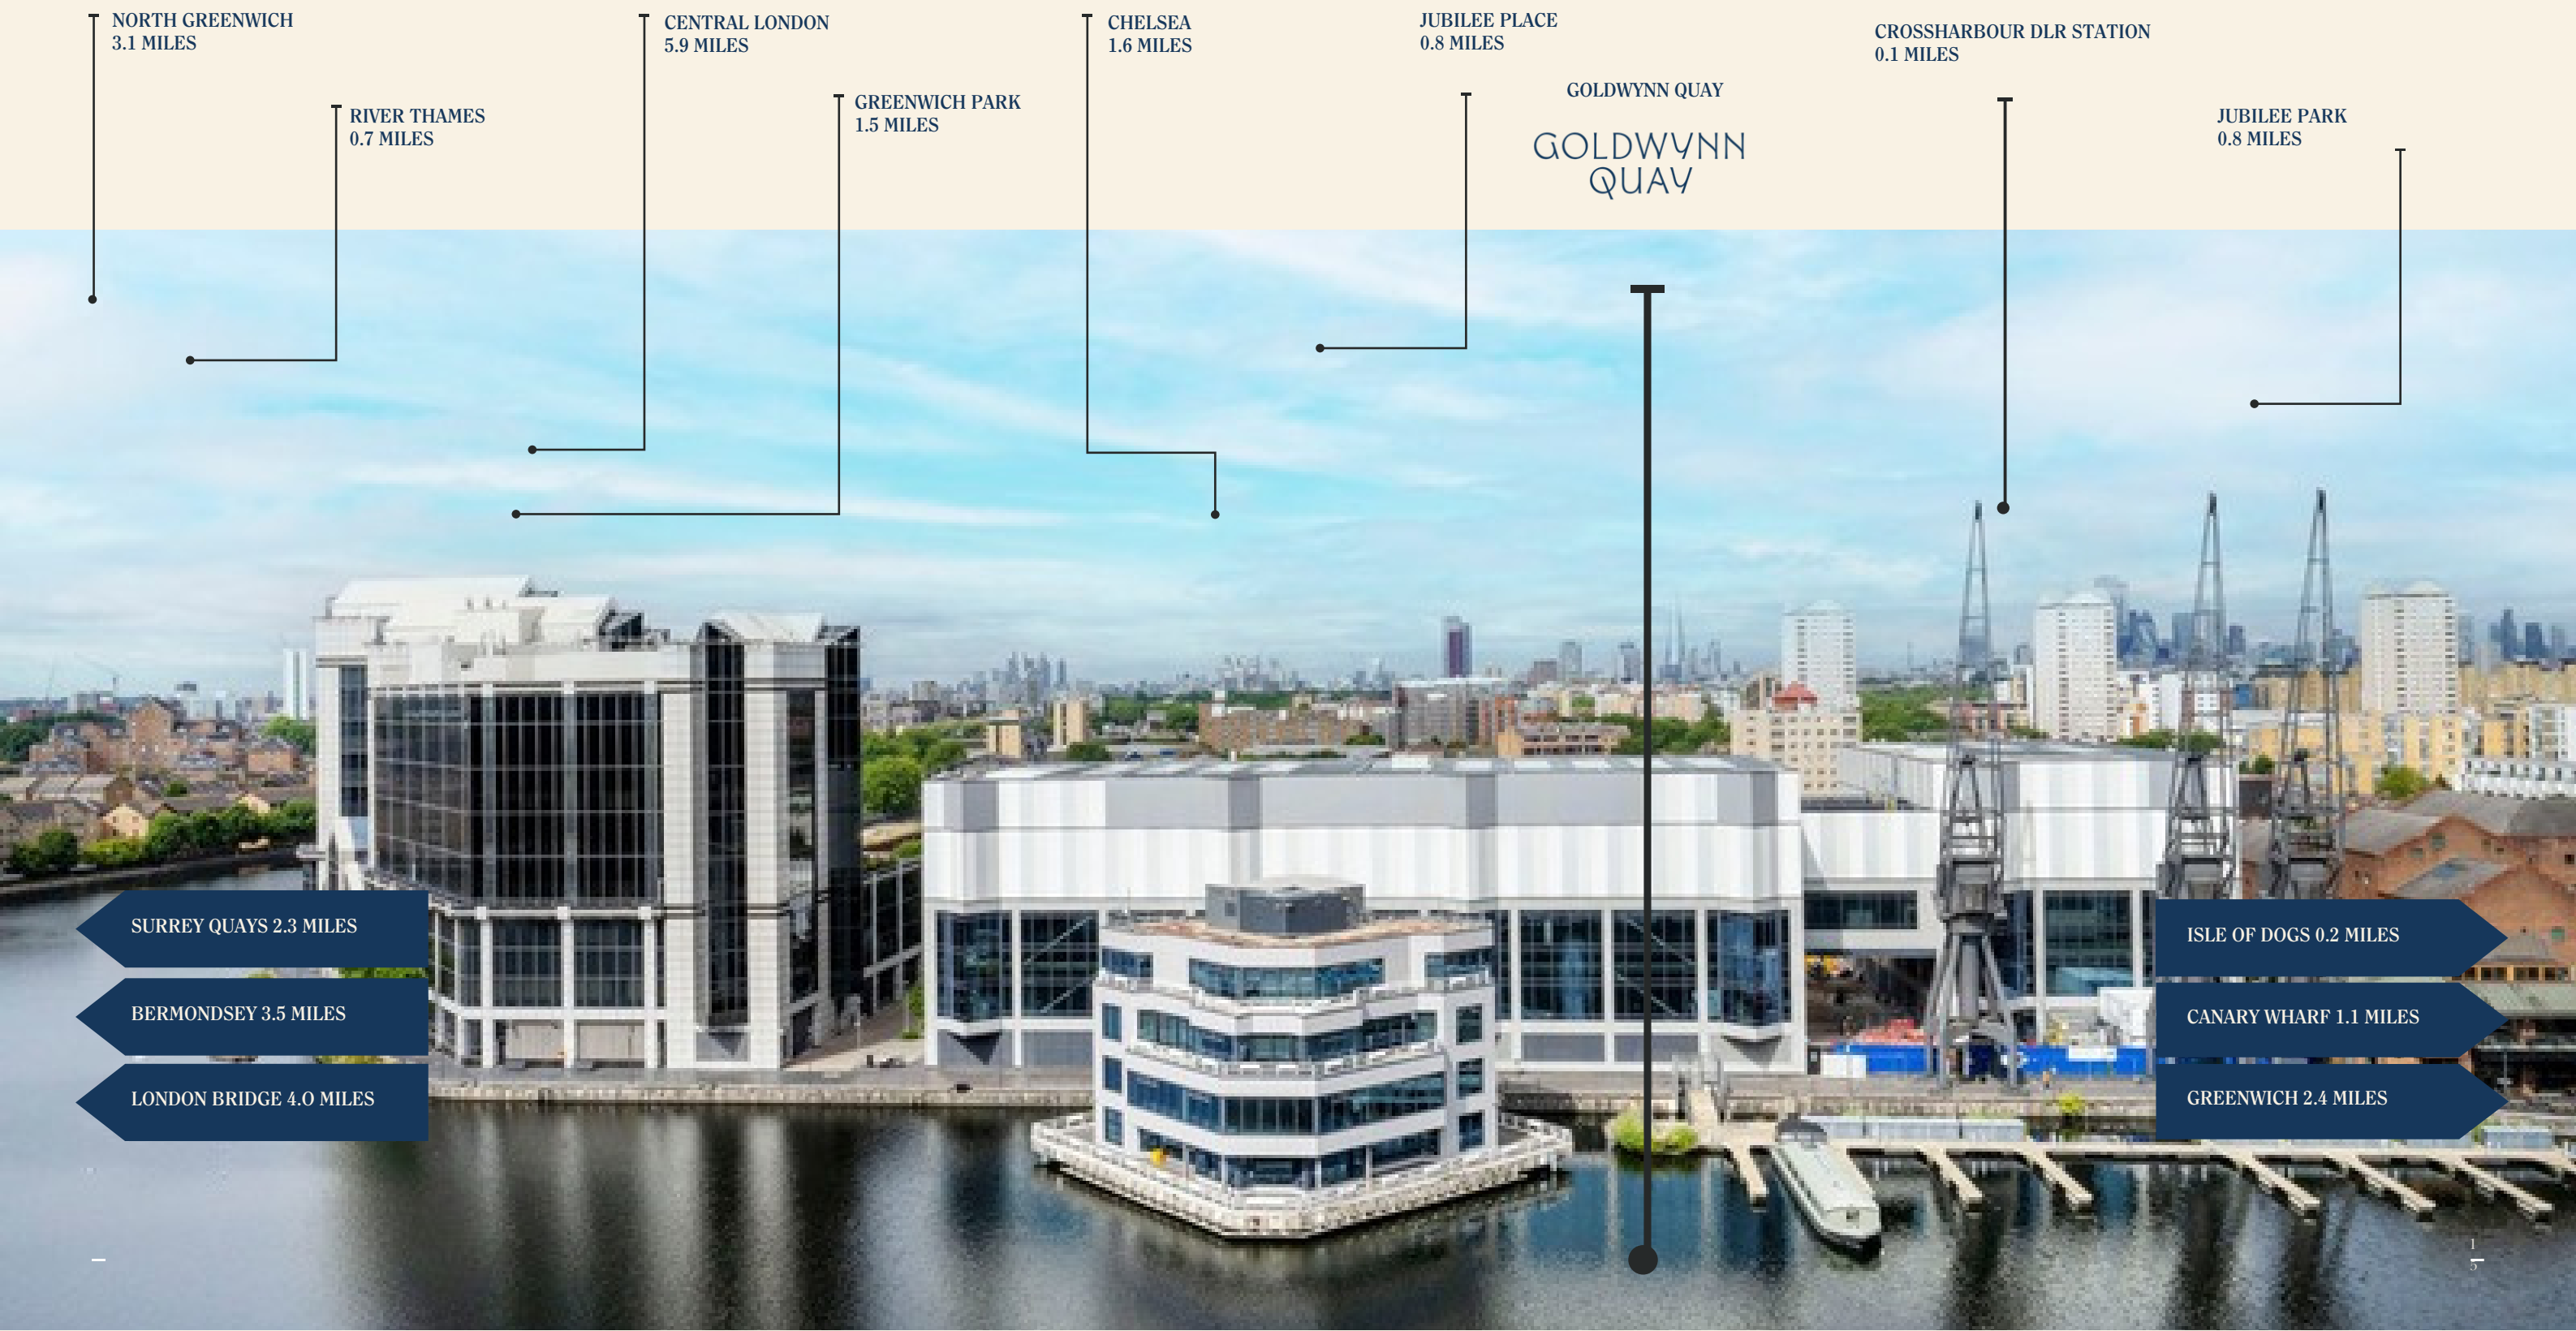

Life at Goldwynn Quay - Riverside Living, Connected to London

Life at Goldwynn Quay brings the best of Canary Wharf to your doorstep. From riverside calm to the city at your fingertips. Nestled on Selsdon Way, you're moments from scenic walks along the Thames, the lively South Dock Marina, and the green spaces of Jubilee Park. Enjoy morning jogs, weekend brunches, or evenings out at Canary Wharf's cafés, bars, and flagship stores - all just minutes from home.

With Crossharbour DLR, Canary Wharf Underground, and the Elizabeth Line nearby, central London, Bank, and beyond are effortlessly accessible. Heathrow and other key destinations are also within easy reach.

Stay close to the water, connect with the vibrant community, or explore the city - at Goldwynn Quay, the choice is yours.

Access all areas

The best of London living

London never stands still, and Canary Wharf is no exception. Once solely viewed as London's financial hub, with an ever-growing offering of incredible restaurants, coffee shops, bars, retail outlets and cultural events, this stunning waterside location has developed into one of the capital's most happening and sought after areas.

Food for thought

ROKA

Enjoy contemporary Japanese robatayaki cuisine against the unmistakable backdrop of Canary Wharf's spectacular skyline. Choose the elegant interior or dine outside on the landscaped, Japanese-garden style terrace overlooking Canada Square.

HAWKSMOOR

Housed in an eco-friendly floating pavilion that gently rises and falls with the tide, enjoy prime cuts of matured beef, seafood and a range of British classics in striking surroundings. From post-work cocktails to Sunday roast, expect something extra special.

DISHOOM

Hidden in a little corner of Wood Wharf, Dishoom brings the glittering, big-business, metropolitan scene of '70s Bombay to life. Open all day, every day, sample the rather moreish Bombay comfort food for breakfast, lunch or dinner.

Culture

With a mix of public art, exhibitions, food markets, open-air concerts, sporting events and theatrical productions, Canary Wharf offers a magnificent and ever-evolving cultural backdrop that develops and changes with you.

Originally entitled the Millennium Dome, the O2 Arena is an iconic London landmark just a few minutes from home that has played host to some of the world's largest sporting events and music concerts including The Rolling Stones, Rihanna and the London Olympics. From live music to open-air film screenings, Canada Square Park presents a wide range of year-round cultural events.

Shopping

Showcasing 120 brand names across 5 malls, Canary Wharf Shopping Centre offers the ultimate retail experience. From one-off boutiques to designer labels and everything in between, satisfy your fashion, homeware, beauty and fitness cravings in rather stylish surroundings just an 8-minute train ride or 20-minute walk from Goldwynn Quay.

Healthy living

WALKING/CYCLING
Pedestrian and cycle routes take you on a scenic journey around Canary Wharf and beyond. Our cycle store keeps your bike safe and secure or rent a local e-bike and explore.

SWIMMING
Celebrate Summer in the City with open water swimming in Middle Dock.

RUNNING
A variety of running clubs make fitness easy, with good company and conversation inspiring every step.

PARKS
Despite what you may think, Canary Wharf has a wealth of parks and open green spaces. From picnics to yoga classes or just time with a good book, live life at your pace.

Well Connected for City Living

MOVING AROUND LONDON MADE SIMPLE FROM GOLDWYNN QUAY.

At Goldwynn Quay, London moves at your pace. Step outside and within moments you can pick up everyday essentials, grab coffee by the water, or meet friends in the heart of Canary Wharf. Riverside paths along the Thames and the tranquil setting of South Dock Marina bring balance to city life, while the neighbourhood’s shops, restaurants, and leisure spaces make daily living seamless.

Exceptional transport connections place the whole capital within easy reach. Crossharbour DLR is just a short 2 minute walk away, linking you swiftly to Bank and the City. Canary Wharf Underground station connects to the Jubilee Line, while the Elizabeth Line offers fast, direct journeys across London - reaching the West End in minutes and Heathrow Airport in around 40.

When you’re ready to explore further, the culture of the South Bank, the energy of Shoreditch, and the shopping districts of central London are all easily accessible.

Getting around London from Goldwynn Quay couldn’t be easier.
