For Sale Freehold £250,000

Situated in the sought after market town of Ossett is this superb two bedroom semi-detached true bungalow, offering spacious and well presented accommodation throughout. Boasting generous reception space and attractive front and rear gardens, the property also benefits from ample off road parking, making it an excellent opportunity for a wide range of buyers.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall with loft access and doors leading to the living room, kitchen, shower room, bedroom one and bedroom two/dining room. Externally, the property enjoys an attractive frontage with decorative pebble beds and mature planted borders. A paved driveway provides ample off road parking and extends down the side of the property, offering access to the rear garden and the detached single garage, which features an up-and-over door. There is also a useful brick built store housing the gas combi boiler. To the rear, the enclosed garden incorporates lawned areas, established planted borders, and a combination of paved and concrete patio seating areas, creating the perfect space for outdoor dining and entertaining. The garden is fully enclosed by boundary walls and timber fencing, making it ideal for children and pets.

The property occupies a convenient and highly desirable location, particularly appealing to those wishing to be within easy reach of local amenities. A range of shops, schools, and everyday facilities can be found nearby, with Ossett town centre itself just a short distance away. Regular bus services operate locally, while the nearby city of Wakefield offers two railway stations providing excellent links to Leeds, Manchester, London, and beyond. For those commuting further afield, Junction 40 of the M1 motorway is only a short drive away.

Only a full internal inspection will truly reveal the quality, space, and potential this fantastic bungalow has to offer. An early viewing is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.
