Beacon Terrace, Beacon, TR14 - Former Mine Captain’s Residence with Panoramic Views and a Self-Contained Annexe

Offers In Region Of £675,000

5 3 2

Former Mine Captain's Residence with Coastal Views and Self-Contained Annexe**

In an elevated position in Beacon, Camborne, this five-bedroom period home covers 253.8sq m, enjoys far-reaching countryside and north coast views, walled gardens, ample parking and a one-bedroom annexe.

Brimming with character, the house features high ceilings, ornate cornicing, ceiling roses, fireplaces and stained glass. The spacious living room has a wood-burning stove, while a separate dining room with electric Aga, fitted kitchen, utility room and glazed sunroom provide generous living space. Upstairs are four double bedrooms, including one en-suite, plus a fifth bedroom currently used as a home office with sea views. The family bathroom boasts a freestanding bath and walk-in rainfall shower.

With its own entrance, kitchen, living room, double bedroom and bathroom, the self-contained annexe is currently let on a long-term tenancy and was previously a holiday let. It offers income potential, multigenerational living or scope to reconnect with the main house.

Outside, the extensive lawned garden, stone walls, paved terrace and mature planting provide wonderful entertaining space with sunset views. A private driveway, detached workshop and stores complete the offering. Double-glazed sash windows fitted throughout in 2025 and upgraded loft insulation enhance comfort and efficiency.

Convenient for Camborne's amenities, mainline station, the A30 and nearby beaches. Video tour available in the listing photographs.
