£155,000

- Superb modern terrace
- Cul-de-sac location
- Allocated parking in private car park
- Southerly facing garden
- Move-in condition
- Modern kitchen and bathroom
- Easy to maintain garden
- EPC B

A fabulous modern mid-terrace constructed in 2019 and offering beautifully planned accommodation. Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac position and with an easy to maintain and southerly facing garden, the property also boasts allocated off-street parking in a private car park.

In fantastic move-in condition and located in a superb tucked away position and overlooking a largely unused area of Leconfield Camp, the property will be of interest to anyone looking for a feeling of security and as such, would make it an ideal lock up & leave, first time buyers' property or investment opportunity.

LOCATION

The property is located on a row of modern terraces situated at the end of Lissett Close which is accessed off Grange Road in the centre of Leconfield. The village of Leconfield lies approximately 3 miles North of Beverley and as such offers convenient access into the town and surrounding areas by road and rail. The village itself offers a range of facilities including Post Office/shop and Primary School with a more extensive range being available in Beverley itself.
