Folkestone is a vibrant and increasingly sought-after coastal town on the Kent coast, offering a unique blend of seaside charm, culture and connectivity. Known for its creative spirit and regeneration, the town combines historic architecture with a modern, lively atmosphere.

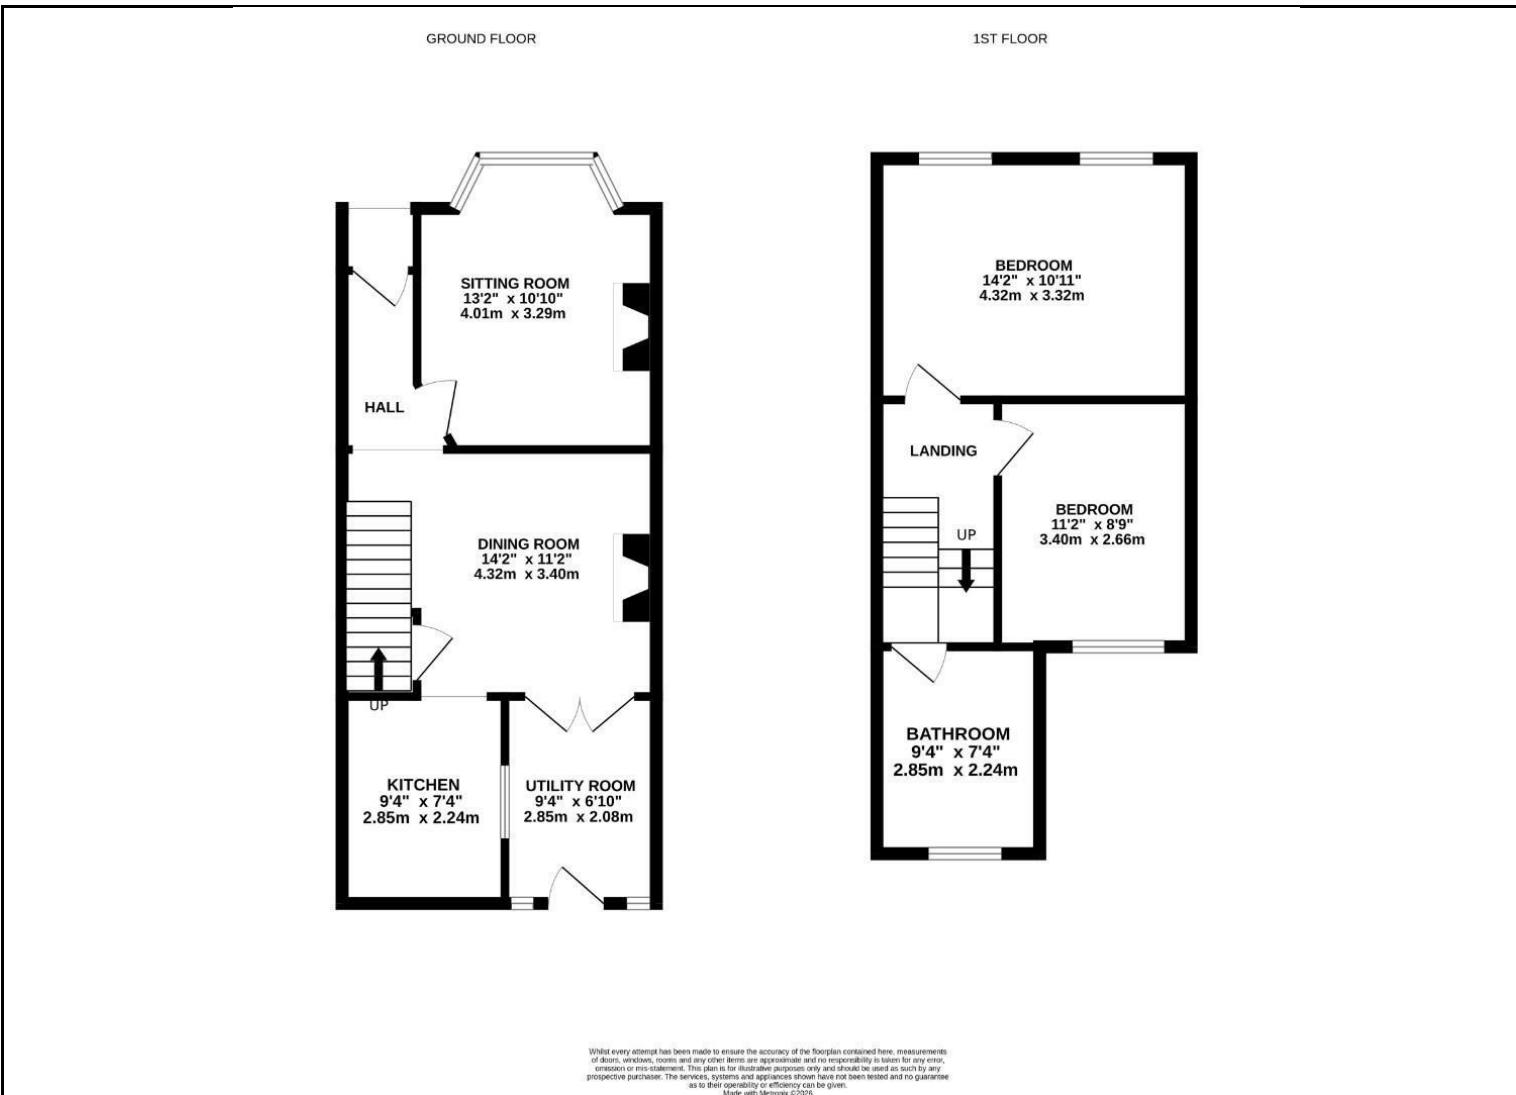

The town centre provides a wide range of amenities including independent shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities, while the popular Harbour Arm has become a focal point for dining, events and panoramic sea views. Folkestone's Creative Quarter is home to galleries, studios and boutique businesses, adding to the town's distinctive character.

Excellent transport links make Folkestone particularly appealing to commuters, with high-speed rail services to London St Pancras, as well as easy access to the M20, Channel Tunnel and Dover Port. Surrounded by attractive coastline, beaches and nearby countryside, Folkestone offers a lifestyle that balances coastal living with convenience and connectivity.
