

Aislaby Road, Eaglescliffe, TS16 0JJ

Set on Aislaby Road, one of Eaglescliffe's most desirable addresses and just a short walk from Yarm's cobbled High Street, this double fronted detached home offers four double bedrooms, three bathrooms, two reception rooms, a large double garage and a versatile self contained annex. Blending character features with modern standards throughout, it's an ideal choice for families seeking space, practicality and a premium location.

A wide, welcoming hall sets the tone, leading to three generous reception rooms. The main lounge enjoys a bay window and a log burner, the dining room to the front also enjoys a bay window, while the family room features its own side bay and double doors, creating a bright, relaxed living space. The kitchen is designed around a large central island with breakfast seating, a Belfast sink and a Rangemaster range cooker. A lobby connects through to a spacious utility fitted with units to match the kitchen, another Belfast sink and door to the rear patio. A separate boot room adds everyday convenience which leads into the integral double garage.

Upstairs, the gallery landing leads to four double bedrooms. The master suite includes a walk-in wardrobe and en-suite, while the second bedroom also benefits from its own wardrobe area and en-suite. Bedrooms three and four both share the family bathroom.

A standout feature is the self-contained annex, complete with planning permission for office use, separate access and its own electrical supply. It offers a main living/working area, an additional room, a kitchenette and a WC - ideal as a home office, studio, guest suite or independent living space.
