PARTICULARS OF SALE

A much loved family home, this impressive stone property offers generous accommodation with a flexibility that can only be appreciated on viewing, particularly the side entrance which is believed to have previously given access to a village shop in the current sitting room. The house has a light and airy feel with the many windows allowing natural light to flood in.

Well maintained throughout, there is still the opportunity to put one's own stamp on it, whilst the house has gardens to the front and rear which can prove to be a quiet and delightful sanctuary from the world outside.

Ruswarp sits just on the outskirts of Whitby, on the banks of the River Esk, with a nice riverside walk between the two as well as having its own amenities including a renown butchers, village pub, tourist attractions, primary school and railway station.

A central path from the front garden leads up to the:

Entrance Hall: With stairs leading up to the first floor, and panel doors off.

Sitting Room: A light airy room with 2 sash windows to the front with a further side window, staircase to the first floor, and door to the side lobby. The second staircase is in place as it is believed that this was once used as a shop.

Side Entrance Lobby: A room with a door and windows to the side plus a connecting door to ...

WC Cloakroom- With WC and wash hand basin.

Dining Room: With stripped and varnished floor, coving to the ceiling, concertina doors into conservatory and open archway into the...

Lounge: Having a central stone fireplace with large basket grate and stone hearth, sash windows to the front aspect, coving to the ceiling and stripped and varnish floor.

Conservatory/Garden Room: With door to the rear and tiled floor which continues through to the...

Kitchen: The kitchen is generously proportioned with large window to the rear making for a light and airy room. There is a range of base and wall units, with laminated working surfaces, inset acrylic sink unit and tiled splash-backs. There is an integral oven with gas hob over, plumbing for a dishwasher and space for a fridge freezer.

First Floor

The staircase rises from the entrance hall splitting at the top giving access to the first floor landing and rooms.

Bedroom: A large double bedroom to the rear with two sash windows and original fire grate.

Bedroom: Another large double bedroom with two sash windows to the front, polished floor and original fireplace. Built-in wardrobes to alcove.

Bathroom: Having in a white suite with bath with shower and screen over, pedestal hand-basin and WC. There are sash windows to the side and rear, a built-in cupboard within which lies the boiler and plumbing for an automatic washing machine.

Bedroom: A smaller double bedroom, with sash windows to the side and front, polished floor and staircase to the sitting room.

Outside

The property is set back from the road behind a low stone wall with wrought iron balustrade and central gate. The front garden has an attractive mixture of mature shrubs and plants with central path.

The rear garden/courtyard has a paved and wood patio area/deck with a small lawned area bordered by mature shrubs and trees. There is a small outside shed.

PLEASE NOTE: The driveway to the side over the property is not part of the property, although has been used for parking by the occupants of the house with the permission of the owner. There is access allowed to the rear garden.
