Edith Grove, Chelsea

£775 Per Week

The property boasts an impressive array of features, including £10,000 worth of state-of-the-art home entertainment with an 90-inch cinema-style TV in the reception room and a 75-inch TV in the principal bedroom, all supported by ultra-fast WiFi broadband (available at £50 extra per month). Further highlights include hardwood flooring throughout, a stylish kitchen with breakfast bar, two entrances (including a private entrance), and direct access to the communal gardens.

The bathrooms are equally striking, finished with slate tiles, LED lighting, and a luxurious bath complete with a built-in TV as well as fitted with underfloor heating.

Ideally located for the amenities and superb transport links of the Kings Road, the nearest London Underground stations are Fulham Broadway (District Line) and Earls Court (Piccadilly and District Line). Imperial Wharf Station and the River Bus are also just minutes away, and the property offers excellent road access to the A4, M4, and Heathrow.
