Situated within Essex's Golden Triangle, Chigwell is magnificent location, offering a multitude of activities to keep residents engaged, and with convenient connections into central London and across the county making commuting a breeze – this is a vibrant setting that is up there with the most sought-after in the region.

Inspired by today's lifestyles, the main open-plan interior spaces offer a seamless living experience, with immaculate details and premium appliances that will be a joy to experience every day. These residences will feature some of the most attractive designer kitchens on the market as standard – and every aspect of the interiors has been very carefully selected to ensure a long-lasting and elegant, final end product.

Completed to the high standards of design that Prime and Country Homes are synonymous with, each of these beautifully appointed apartments has been carefully considered to make the most of the light and space. Combining luxury with functionality, the apartments have been fitted with designer kitchens featuring premium surfaces, durable units, and elegant, soft-close doors. As standard you'll also find high-quality integrated washer-dryers, fridge freezers, and dishwashers, as well as ovens, hobs, stainless steel hoods, sleek taps, kitchenware, and feature lighting – with everything connected and ready to use from the moment you walk in.
