Golden sands, a colony of grey seals, dunes stretching out before you... the beautiful beaches at Winterton and Horsey are well known. This barn can be found a short walk away in neighbouring East Somerton, where you get all the benefits of the area but you're off the beaten track. Walking distance from the coast, it's also home to a part-ruined church with a tale to tell, country lanes with more people passing on foot or horseback than by car, and wildlife galore. A peaceful spot and one that's well worth exploring!

A Rare Opportunity

Whether you're looking for a 'lock up and leave' weekend retreat or a long-term home to call your own, the chance to make this beautiful barn yours is a very rare opportunity indeed. One of just six properties in a prestigious group where homes rarely come up for sale, it offers peace and privacy, tranquillity and space to relax, yet you're not isolated. You can walk to the shops, the chippy, Post Office, pub, primary school and more, yet when you come back here you leave the outside world behind. Wander the lanes with your dog, watch the ducks and moorhens on the pond around the corner, catch a spectacular sunrise or sunset over the fields - this is a truly relaxing place to be with a strong connection to the natural world and the changing of the seasons.

KEY FEATURES

Brimming With Charm

The barn is thought to be around 150-200 years old. It was originally converted in the early 2000s and the owner has further extended and improved it ever since. It's been both a family home and a holiday let and has proved highly successful for both. Full of character and quirky corners, with vaulted ceilings, oak beams, a double-sided wood burner, exposed brick and more, it's also unusually bright. The owner has chosen contemporary interiors, with clean lines and glossy finishes that further enhance the light. The contrast with the rustic textures of the buildings works incredibly well - this is a home that's both welcoming and stylish. You have a spacious sitting room and a formal dining room in addition to the kitchen. With three bedrooms and two bathrooms, there's no need to queue in the mornings, and one of the bedrooms is ideal for children or could be a dressing room.

Between Beach And Broads

Outside you have a sheltered and sunny courtyard to the rear, ideal for relaxing with a coffee, or something a little stronger. The main garden sits at the front of the property, but because it's sunken you're nicely tucked away from passers by and it's surprisingly secluded. It's a real suntrap and you're out of the wind. There's parking on your private drive, but once you're here, most things are easily accessible on foot. You can explore the quiet lanes, take a dip in the sea, walk along the dunes or pick up fresh fish and chips in neighbouring Winterton. The area is particularly well-known for its grey seal colony, one of the largest in the country. The nice thing about this barn is that you can walk to all the attractions that draw tourists here throughout the year, yet you're off the beaten track so not disturbed by anyone. You have even more amenities in nearby Martham, including nursery, primary and high schools, as well as access to the glorious Norfolk Broads.
