Positioned within a tucked-away location and accessed from Castle Street, within the historic centre of Nether Stowey, this impressive detached cottage exudes charm and character. The accommodation comprises three bedrooms, a first-floor bathroom, a generous lounge, a well-appointed kitchen/diner and a practical utility room.

Outside, the property boasts an attractive and well-stocked rear garden featuring a variety of flowers and shrubs, along with lawned and seating areas.

ACCOMMODATION

Tucked away off Castle Street and approached through a quiet courtyard, this characterful home welcomes you via a stable door into a spacious kitchen/diner. The ground floor also offers a cosy lounge, a rear lobby, and a practical utility room. Upstairs, three bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom lead off the first-floor landing.

The rear garden is a real highlight, offering a charming mix of lawn, seating areas, and flower beds, with a wooden shed to remain, with convenient side access. On-street parking can be found along Castle Street.

LOCATION

The historic village of Nether Stowey has many facilities, including a library, shop, restaurant, butchers, three public houses and Quantock Medical Centre.

The Quantock Hills offer a wide range woodland and moorland walks. Slightly further away, the bustling market town of Bridgwater offers a wider range of amenities and has excellent transport links to the M5 motorway and mainline rail link.
