Inside

A storm porch opens into a welcoming reception hall with useful storage, from which doors lead to an impressive 18'6" (5.63m) sitting room featuring an attractive fireplace. The generously proportioned 15'0" (4.57m) dining kitchen was comprehensively updated in 2024 and offers excellent worktop space and abundant storage. This is complemented by a range of integrated appliances including an induction hob, eye-level oven with grill and microwave, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, and washer dryer.

The bungalow also features a stylish shower room, updated in 2024, and three well-proportioned bedrooms, all enjoying pleasant rural views. One of the bedrooms offers excellent versatility and could easily be re-purposed as a delightful snug or home office, benefiting from far-reaching views and french doors opening directly onto the rear garden.

Other internal features of note include double glazing throughout and an oil-fired radiator central heating system, which benefits from a new boiler and oil tank installed in 2024.

Outside

The "corner plot" front garden is mainly laid to lawn and a driveway provides parking and access to a brick built single garage. The south facing rear garden was re-landscaped in 2024 to feature a new lawn and a paved seating area that enjoys castle ruin glimpses and far reaching rural views across the Vale of York.
