£250,000

John German

A rare opportunity to acquire three apartments being sold together as an investment portfolio, all with sitting tenants and currently producing a combined rental income of £1,675 per calendar month (£20,100 per annum). Offered for sale with no upward chain, the property is situated in the historic and popular village of Cromford, within walking distance of local amenities including the village shop, post office, pub and Scarthin Books. The sale is particularly suited to a property investor looking to acquire an established portfolio with tenants already in occupation.

Flat 1A is a two-bedroom ground-floor apartment, currently achieving £550 pcm. Accessed directly from Scarthin through a wooden entrance door, the accommodation comprises a sitting room, dining kitchen, bathroom, store room and two bedrooms. To the side of the building is a separate entrance into a communal stairway providing access to the upper apartments, together with a communal outside terrace/storage area.

Flat 2B is a first-floor apartment, currently achieving £650 pcm, with accommodation including a living/dining kitchen, bathroom and bedroom accommodation. Flat 3C occupies the second floor and is currently achieving £475 pcm. Accessed from the communal stairway, a private staircase leads to the second-floor accommodation, which comprises a living/dining kitchen, bathroom and two bedrooms. Together, the three apartments provide an established income-producing investment in a well-known Derbyshire village location, with the benefit of existing tenancies and no onward chain.
