NETHERBY

Netherby is a two-bedroom detached bungalow sitting in a true haven for garden enthusiasts, boasting mature planting, beautifully maintained lawns, and two greenhouses, all thoughtfully designed and meticulously cared for.

The property further benefits from a four-bay garage with workshop and inspection pit, as well as a single garage and store conveniently adjoining the house.

Inside, the accommodation comprises an L-shaped living/dining room featuring a charming log burner, a fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, and a bathroom.

Externally, a large driveway provides ample parking along with a turning circle, while a privacy hedge on three sides ensures a high degree of seclusion.

The property enjoys a beautiful open outlook, enhancing its peaceful setting.

Please note the property would benefit from the installation of a full central heating system.

LOCATION

Caputh is a small, peaceful village in Perthshire, located near the banks of the River Tay, around 6 miles east of Dunkeld and within easy reach of Perth. It offers a quiet rural lifestyle characterised by open countryside, woodland, and a close-knit community, with landmarks such as the historic Caputh Parish Church at its centre. While the village itself is tranquil and sparsely populated, it provides convenient access to nearby attractions including Dunkeld Cathedral and The Hermitage, making it an appealing location for those seeking a calm setting with strong connections to nature and the wider Perthshire area.

DIRECTIONS

From Dunkeld head along the A984 Old Military Road towards Caputh/Meikleour for about four miles. Pass the junction on your right for Manse Road and continue along until you reach the long hedge, look out for the entrance to the driveway for Netherby on your right.
