Positioned close to local amenities, renowned eateries and all that our historic city has to offer, this is a truly special home in an exceptional location.

Approaching the property from this attractive street, the pretty forecourt garden immediately sets the tone and invites you into the home. The living room is cosy and welcoming, beautifully styled with tasteful décor, wooden flooring and a fireplace with ornate traditional surround and hearth, creating the perfect place to relax and unwind.

To the rear is the charming kitchen, fitted with shaker-style units complemented by stylish worktops. The exposed brick chimney breast and former fireplace recess add character and useful storage, while the original quarry tiled flooring enhances the period feel. To the first floor is a generous double bedroom with ample space for additional furniture. The bathroom is positioned to the rear and features a shower over the bath along with a bespoke arch-shaped vanity unit with storage.
