TRUE MASTERPIECE!!

Style and imagination has created this truly stunning home set in a village on the edge of the Chew Valley.

The quality shines throughout with a natural flow from room to room.

A welcoming hallway leads to a spacious sitting room to an inner hall giving access to the study with French doors to the garden. Both rooms have Wood burners, window seats and period features.

To the rear of the property is a breath-taking open plan space with high vaulted ceiling with exposed beams, dual aspect French doors to terraces. A feature fireplace with dog grate fire creates the atmosphere of this amazing area.

The kitchen is high end with a large island and integral appliances and plenty of storage. A boot room with a separate shower room is off the kitchen and allows access to the side of the property, parking area and double garage. Upstairs we have three double bedroom and a large luxury bathroom..

Outside the gardens are beautiful and ideal for entertaining with many areas of interest.

I can only say one thing SEEING IS BELIEVING so call our friendly team to find out more.

Clapton is a small village on the edge of the Chew Valley within the Parish of Ston Easton, surrounded by countryside and farmland. There is a village hall and local amenities in the nearby villages.
