The Property

3 Springfields is a charming Grade II Listed mid-terrace home dating back to approximately 1880, tucked away within the attractive Sawmills hamlet and offering a wonderful blend of character, warmth and countryside outlooks. Lovingly restored by the current vendors, the property has been carefully improved in a way that respects its heritage while creating a comfortable and inviting home.

From the moment you step through the gate into the walled front garden, there is a sense of history and charm. The red brick façade and period proportions reflect the heritage of the terrace, setting the tone for what lies within.

The ground floor accommodation begins with a cosy yet characterful living room, featuring a fireplace with inset stove, patterned detailing and a large window overlooking the front garden and countryside beyond. To the rear, the kitchen offers a traditional feel with wooden cabinetry, contrasting worktops and space for everyday dining. Beyond this, a charming garden room provides an additional reception area, complete with a stove, creating a versatile space ideal as a snug, dining room or peaceful retreat with access to the rear yard. The bathroom is also located on the ground floor and has been thoughtfully finished with deep green tiling, timber accents and a bath with shower over, blending contemporary touches with period character.

Upstairs, the first floor includes three bedrooms, each enjoying natural light and pleasant views, particularly to the front where rolling countryside provides an ever-changing backdrop through the seasons. The principal bedroom is especially generous, with wooden flooring and an open outlook across surrounding fields.

Externally, the property benefits from both a rear yard and a separate rear garden area, offering a mix of patio space, planting beds and useful outbuildings. The attractive walled front garden is mainly laid to lawn with established borders, creating a welcoming approach and a pleasant place to sit and enjoy the setting, while the property also benefits from two allocated parking spaces.

Springfields forms part of the historic Sawmills hamlet, a picturesque and peaceful location surrounded by countryside yet conveniently positioned for access to nearby amenities.

If you are searching for a home with genuine heritage, character features and countryside views, this delightful, listed property could be exactly what you have been waiting for.

The Location

Kerry is a picturesque village in the heart of Powys, set in open countryside with a strong local community. With a population of around 800, it offers a quieter pace of life while still having everyday essentials close at hand.

The village has a good range of amenities, including two public houses, a village hall, a post office, a primary school, a hairdresser, a bowling green and a local football club. These facilities support village life and provide a natural focus for community activity.

The surrounding countryside is well suited to walking and enjoying the rural setting, while Kerry's location also makes it practical for commuting. Welshpool, Newtown and Shrewsbury are all within reach, providing a wider range of shopping, employment and transport links, including national rail services and access to the motorway network.

Newtown, less than ten minutes away by car, is the largest town in Powys and a key centre for Mid Wales. It offers a broad range of schools, including Newtown High School and Sixth Form, along with further education at Coleg Powys. The town provides a wide choice of shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants and essential services, as well as cultural venues including Theatr Hafren, Oriel Davies Gallery and the Robert Owen Museum. A variety of sports clubs, gyms and leisure facilities further support an active lifestyle.

Kerry offers a balanced combination of village life, countryside surroundings and convenient access to larger towns when needed.
