Location

Shearsby is a vibrant community located in the beautiful South Leicestershire countryside, just nine miles south of Leicester. The village is perfectly positioned between Lutterworth and the historic market town of Market Harborough, both of which offer a wealth of amenities, including independent boutiques, restaurants, bars, and supermarkets such as Waitrose. For those who appreciate outdoor activities, the area is rich in recreational opportunities. Nearby golf courses, including Ullesthorpe, Lutterworth, Market Harborough, and Kilworth Springs, cater to golf enthusiasts. Additionally, the innovative Kilworth open-air theatre, set within the grounds of Kilworth House Hotel, provides a unique cultural experience. Despite being a protected Conservation Area, Shearsby is a lively and active village. The heart of the community is marked by the Village Green, the Old School House converted into the village hall, St Mary Magdalene Church, and The Chandlers

Public House, all of which foster a strong sense of belonging among residents. Families will appreciate the excellent educational options available, with local primary schools in Arnesby and Gilmorton, as well as a selection of state secondary schools in Lutterworth. For those seeking private education, prestigious institutions such as Rugby School and Leicester Grammar School are conveniently located nearby.
