Enjoying a peaceful, rural setting just a few miles from Elgin and local amenities, this charming detached cottage offers a unique opportunity to enjoy family living alongside the convenience of on-site business premises.

The cottage features well presented accommodation comprising: Entrance hallway, semi-open plan living and dining area with wood-burning stove, fitted kitchen, utility/storage area, rear porch, four spacious bedrooms, family bathroom and separate shower room.

An internal hallway leads to business-rated commercial premises, currently used as an office and workshop, but which could be converted to suit a number of other options eg hairdressing, massage or Airbnb, and which can be accessed independently via a separate entrance and vestibule. These areas are complemented by an integrated double garage with ample space to accommodate a caravan. A staircase leads from the commercial space to a domestic family room above, ideal for use as a home office, games room or guest accommodation.

The property benefits from majority double glazing, oil-fired central heating to the cottage and electric air source heating to the commercial areas. Utility connections are to Scottish Water, EDF Energy and LPG gas, while drainage is to a septic tank.

The property benefits from generous off-street parking and a beautifully maintained wrap-around garden featuring mature trees and over a dozen fruit trees and bushes. Additional outdoor features include a greenhouse and a garden shed, making this a gardener's paradise.

We highly recommend a viewing to fully appreciate the perfect blend of rural tranquillity, family accommodation and business potential this property has to offer.
